Kapitel 1:

The last kiss wasn't what it seemed to be
Your words a lie
Your eyes just a never ending ocean

I thought you mean business with me
All my trust on you
My heart in your hands

What have you done with me?
I'm bleeding inside
Dying slowly but you don't worry

You're so cold
Holding my heart in your hands
And pierce it with your knife

It hurts so much
Can't sleep in my bed
The memories and my love to you killing me

Where did your love go to?
All these questions in my head
Just want to die

Scars everywhere
You're looking so cold
While I'm laying at your feet

An empty gaze
Don't want to feel the pain anymore
Please let me die
